

Team Sho-Air/Specialized will be sending a team of two riders to race the Epic singletrack event BC Bike Race in Canada, returning for the third time will be Manuel Prado with his new team mate Sam Jurekovic, Prado seems to have fall in love with this race as he is always talking about the great vistas, the great North Shore Singletrack and the great food and organization the friendly staff has.

The very first year the event was put together Prado was there with team mate and Crank Brothers team manager Jason First, the two had an awesome show and end it up in third place overall after 7 days of Epic MTB racing, last year Prado returned with a new team mate from Costa Rica, this time it was Marvin Campos, former winner of the La Ruta de los Conquistadores in Costa Rica the duo finished 5th overall with a heavy pack of Elite teams that included: Trek, Kona, Cannondale, Rocky Mountain and many more.

For 2009 Sho-Air/Specialized will have the Prado-Jurekovic duo racing and going for a podium finish, Prado cannot wait till the race starts so he can enjoy and race full speed at some of the best singletrack in the world.

Event description:

BC Bike Race - "The Ultimate Singletrack Experience" is a 7-day mountain bike journey from Vancouver to Whistler via the North Shore, on trails built by mountain bikers for mountain bikers.

Every day is a feast of singletrack as you traverse the legendary trails of British Columbia. These are the very trails you have seen in both magazines and videos – the North Shore, the Sunshine Coast, Vancouver Island, Squamish and Whistler. This two-wheeled adventure will be a testament to your endurance and spirit...in the end you will triumph and never forget the incredible pilgrimage of the BC Bike Race.

Experience riding like never before - day in and day out you'll challenge some of the best singletrack trails in world. And each day your strength and technical skills will reach new heights. Seven outstanding days with your mountain bike on the finest singletrack trails in BC: this holiday truly is the ultimate mountain bike experience!

New for 2009 – solo riders are invited take part in this memorable adventure!

Whether you wish to ride solo, or in a team of 2, 3, 4 or 5, why not also bring the whole family along to experience the beautiful West Coast of Canada?! We have group rates available - just ask!

We are celebrating 2009 as our third year of amazing success and we want to ensure all that all mountain bikers on the planet are aware of who we are and what we do! If you know of any clubs or websites that would love to hear from us, pass them along...we want to make sure that we reach everyone that is interested!
