

Press Release

Huntington Beach, CA-
February 6th, 2009

U.S. Cup Opening Round at Bonelli Park to feed 500 racers with In N Out Burgers.

The U.S. Cup presented by Specialized has announced that it will be pulling out all the stops at the opening round of the Kenda Cup West series by hiring the In N Out cook out trailer to feed five hundred racers at the March 1st event.

The first five hundred hungry racers to register for the opening round of the Kenda Cup West event at Bonelli Park will receive a ticket for a free In N Out cheeseburger, drink and bag of chips as a show of appreciation for their participation in the U.S. Cup Series. Qualifying registered racers will be met with a full blown In N Out cook out trailer serving up famous In N Out burgers starting from 12:30 pm to 2:30pm.

Spectators, family and friends also have the option of purchasing lunch from the In N Out cook out trailer during the two-hour serving period for an additional charge.

Racers may pre enter or sign up the day of the event to qualify for the offer, first five hundred registered racers only will be fed free of charge.

To pre register for the Kenda Cup West event at Bonelli Park racers may go to the following website links:

www.teambigbear.com

<https://www.sportsbaseonline.com/Item.aspx?id=3040>

Ty Kady
U.S. Cup Marketing Director
ty@shoair.com